Pathway Church, having campuses in Chippewa and Moon Townships, wants to be a “blessing to the community in any way that we can,” said the Rev. John Westurn, executive pastor.

To help families, Pathway will pack sack lunches with pre-packaged food for children living in Moon Area and Blackhawk school districts that will be delivered free “right to your door every day,” Westurn said.

Parents of students in Moon Area should call 724-318-2475.

Parents in Blackhawk should call 724-843-6381.

He understands that the temporary school closings for at least the next two weeks could adversely affect families whose children rely on schools to provide lunches.
